Here's a brief breakdown and overview of the tools and services available for all registered members:

Forget about snail mail. Why not send a letter to the lady you're interested in now? The lady will be able to read it as long as she is online. In short, this tool allows a member to send messages in email form via AsianDate's emailing system.

Flowers and Presents

From roses, to stuffed animals and even to champagne, you can now make a special occasion even more special by sending out gifts to the lady you're interested in. Asian Date, as well as the affiliate agencies, will make sure that the gift(s) arrive at your lady's doorstep in no time.

Live Chat

If you can't wait to get another response from the lady you're interested in, live chat is for you. You can send and receive messages in real time.

CamShare

CamShare is similar to Live Chat only with the use of high quality video. This tool is basically an upgrade of LiveChat.

Call Me

This service is for you if you want to hear your lady's voice. You can schedule a phone session with your lady ahead of time, with the help of a translator.
